The reports from the treasury of the board of missions are still encouraging. On July 1st the receipts were $35,000 ahead of the record last year. It must be remembered, however, that July and August are usually very "lean" months, so far as contributions to the missionary treasury are concerned, and the appropriations for the year are $72,000 greater than for the previous year. Therefore last year's record must be maintained and nearly $40,000 added thereto. Nevertheless it is possible for the Church to do this thing—or anything else she really determines upon. Will not every one who reads this lend a hand in some way toward the achievement of this end?

In recognition of their services in connection with the organization of the "Red Cross" during the revolution, the Chinese government has bestowed the order of the "Felicitous Grain" upon eleven workers. Three of those so honored, Dr. MacWillis, Dr. Glenton and Miss Higgins, a trained nurse, are members of our mission in the district of Hankow.

A missionary bishop's life is never dull. The convocation of Western Colorado met in the mountain town of Ouray in June. When the time came for the opening service in the evening the bishop was missing. Just at the hour when he should have been delivering his annual address in the cosy and well-lighted church, he was wielding an ax in the vain attempt to extricate his automobile from a "chuck hole" in a lonely part of the road on the Dallas divide and taampin' four miles in the dark over the same lonely highway to find a ranch house and a telephone to inform his clergy of his plight!

On Trinity Sunday Bishop Graves confirmed twenty girls and twentytwo boys in St. Johns Pro-Cathedral, Shanghai. This brings the number for the year's confirmations up to 204, which is much larger than any previous year.

In the recent death of Bishop Tucker the Church of England has lost a great missionary statesman. The work accomplished under his leadership in Uganda, Africa, is one of the miracles of missions. Like our own Bishop Ingle, Bishop Tucker bent his energies to the training of a body of native clergy and teachers, and his wisdom is borne out by the result. The native Christians in Uganda support their own clergy and catechists, pay for their own elementary education, and build their own schools and churches!
